16. (Unclassified - PLC) Called Ralph Malvick, OMB, to confirm with him that we were working on the inflationary impact statement on the Agency's retirement package but that his questions on this prompted the Agency to request an exemption from the provisions of OMB Circular A-107 since any legislation prepared by the Agency would have no direct impact on the domestic economy. Malvick said he would be expecting our letter shortly.

STATOTHR 17. (Confidential - PLC) Called Betsy Samuelson, in the office of Senator Patrick J. Leahy (D., Vt.), and told her that a final decision was made on the case of [REDACTED] and his FOI request. I told her I was not sure of the exact decision but that a final one had been reached by the appeal board.

25X1A 18. (Confidential - FMC) Received a call from Phyllis Carter, in the office of Senator Paul Laxalt (R., Nev.), who asked for the name, address and telephone number of the Agency's recruiter nearest Reno or Las Vegas, Nevada. After checking with the Office of Personnel, I called Ms. Carter back and gave her the information for the recruiter in [REDACTED]
